
Our Creed

We are a part of the Free Church of Scotland, an Christian denomination dedicated to Presbyterian leadership and historic, orthodox teaching.

We believe the gospel (or “good news”) of Jesus Christ — that he was born by the power of the Holy Spirit, lived a perfect life, performing many miracles and healing many of diseases, died a shameful death on a cross to pay the penalty for sin on our behalf, and rose from the dead, conquering the power of death and sin.

We believe that all humans are sinners in need of salvation and that, only by God’s grace and through faith in Jesus, can we be made right with God.

We believe that Jesus will come again to establish his Kingdom in the new heavens and new earth. Only those who have repented of their sin and trusted in Jesus in this life will be able to enter the Kingdom of God.

We believe Christians are called to be missionaries, taking the message of Jesus to the ends of the earth, both in our city and throughout the world.

SMITHTON-CULLODEN FREE CHURCH
OPENING WEEKEND
19-20 MARCH 2011

OPENING WEEKEND

Saturday 19 March

- Open House — 10am-1pm
- » Free Café — 10:30am-12 noon

Sunday 20 March

- Worship Services — 11am & 6pm
- » Speaker — Rev. Alisdair I. Macleod, St. Andrews

Location

Smithton-Culloden Free Church is located at the corner of Tower Road and Murray Road in the community of Smithton in Inverness.

What to Expect

Many have said we are not a typical Free Church. We would consider ourselves a contemporary Presbyterian church filled with imperfect people who are seeking a perfect God. Our aim is to know God's Son, Jesus, and make him known in our community and throughout the world.

A typical worship service includes singing praise to God with Psalms and ancient and modern hymns, reading from the Bible, and a sermon from the minister.

Dress is anywhere from smart casual to business attire. You will find folks in jeans and shirts and other folks in suits. Either one is okay with us.
